

Family Interview Questions

Our team will do the heavy lifting when it comes to vetting your nanny candidates. But you will need to interview a select few to ensure you find the right culture fit for your family.

The below questions are a general guideline on how you can make the right long-term choice when it comes to hiring a nanny that fits your family.

- How do you handle challenges with children?

You want to ensure your nanny will handle behavioral challenges in a similar way to how you would handle it.

- What are your favorite activities to do with kids?

If the nanny loves quiet activities like reading and drawing, but your kids prefer outdoor, active pasttimes, it might not be the right fit.

- What was your best family relationship, and what was your worst? By understanding the dynamics that make a situation the “best” or “worst” for your nanny, you can see if those are elements your family can naturally create - or stay away from.

- How does an ideal nanny-employer relationship function?

Communication is the biggest indicator of a healthy, long-term relationship. Ensure your nanny will bring issues up to you in a constructive manner.
